

An aerial photograph of a coastal town, likely in Brazil, showing a river flowing through a dense forest. The town features several large buildings with red-tiled roofs and a prominent sign that reads "BRASÍLIA". The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent grey rectangle containing the title and authors' names.

A historical map of a settlement, likely a military fort or a planned town, featuring a grid of streets and several rectangular buildings. A river flows through the left side of the map. A compass rose is visible at the bottom center, and the text 'AYTE R.' is partially visible at the bottom left. The map is overlaid with a semi-transparent vertical band on the left side. The text 'THANK YOU' is centered over the map in a large, white, sans-serif font.
