TRANSFER

Overview

- Transfer Code of Practice & Committee
- Version 4 of the Code
- Transfer Alerting Service

What is Transfer?

A voluntary code for journal publishers containing best practices for transferring and receiving journals.

Governed by a standing committee of librarians, publishers & other intermediaries

Transfer is more than just a Code:

- Transfer Alerting Service (database, RSS feed, listserv)
- Ongoing program of outreach, education, and support

History

- 2006: Working group forms under UKSG
- 2007: Transfer Code of Practice, version 1.0
- 2008: Transfer Code of Practice, version 2.0
- 2009: Enhanced Transfer Alerting Service (JISC) created
- 2015: Transfer moves under NISO
- 2015: Transfer Code of Practice, version 3.0
- 2018: Migration of Transfer Alerting Service to ISSN Centre
- 2018: Transfer Code of Practice, version 4.0 [in progress]

Transfer Code of Practice Version 4

Address current and new considerations in scholarly journal community and make publisher responsibilities as clear as possible:

- Clarify/address categories of paid customers (beyond subscribers)
- OA considerations
- Perpetual access responsibilities
- Licensing information
- Handling journal URLs and redirects

The ISSN International Centre and Transfer

Starting Sept 10th, 2018, ETAS is provided by the ISSN IC.

A two step-process:

- Signature of the Transfer Code of practice by publishers;
- Registration of the publisher by the ISSN International Centre on the ISSN Publishers' Extranet.

Transfer requests are filled in by the publishers on the ISSN Extranet.

Transfer information is distributed on the new ETAS application: https://journaltransfer.issn.org/transfer/search_transfer

Transfer Alerting Service – New Platform

Welcome to the Transfer Alerting Service

The NISO Transfer Code of Practice sets out best practices for scholarly publishers to ensure that journal transfers between parties occur with minimum disruption and that the content remains accessible. The Transfer Alerting Service (TAS) has been designed to facilitate communication of journal transfers and is hosted by the International ISSN Centre.

The TAS is made up of:

- A database of journal transfers which can be searched or browsed. This allows librarians and other interested parties to access the details of journal transfers announced through the TAS and provides an archive of transfer information supplied by publishers using the service.
- A notification service available through an RSS feed or by signing-up to an email list. Librarians, information professionals, and representatives of other organisations with an interest in journal transfers are encouraged to sign up to the list. Every time a journal transfer is announced through the TAS, registrants receive email alerts detailing the journal(s) involved, bibliographic information, and contact details for the publishers involved.
- An API which may be used by interested parties to query or integrate with the TAS.

Publishers are required to register with the International ISSN Centre to provide journal transfer information for announcement through the TAS. Under the terms of the Code, endorsing publishers are required to use the service whenever they receive a new journal.

ETAS API

The API is generally RESTFUL and returns results in JSON.

API BaseURL

https://journaltransfer.issn.org/transfer/search_transfer/api/ - querying this URL will return a list of all the transfers recorded within the ETAS database.

API Filters

To refine the query, filters may be appended to the BaseURL as a QueryString:

?key1=value1&key2=value2...

Example : https://journaltransfer.issn.org/transfer/search_transfer/api?query=rpcn:cox

To get all the transfers recorded, please use the URL :

https://journaltransfer.issn.org/transfer/search_transfer/api?query=*
