This part of the Organizational Assessment is designed to help you select a specific caregiving program or service area that you want to work on as an organization.

The first step is to fill in this grid. Think of potential programs or services you'd like to work on and categorize them below:

1 Easy Less Important	2 Easy Important
3 Hard Less Important	4 Hard Important

Now, take a close look at Quadrants 2 and 4 and pick one program or service area that you think would be a good place to start.

We think we want to focus on:

Now, to help you confirm a specific program or service area that you want to work on, ask yourselves these questions:

1. Do we have enough data on actual caregiving needs in our community?

<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes
<input type="checkbox"/>	No

Why we chose our response:

2. Have we comprehensively examined our current caregiving support and service approaches?

<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes
<input type="checkbox"/>	No

Why we chose our response:

3. Do we need to refine our gap analysis based on more in-depth information?

<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes
<input type="checkbox"/>	No

Why we chose our response:

4. Have we really focused on the best program or service option, including strengths and weaknesses of the strategy?

<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes
<input type="checkbox"/>	No

Why we chose our response:

The caregiver support/service strategy on which we have decided to focus:
